From the Paris Gazette, dated June 9.

Warſaw, May 11.

LETTERS from Wilna of the 28th of laſt Month adviſe, that a Tribunal of Juſtice was open'd there the 23d, purſuant to Writs iſſued in the Name of King Staniſlaus. Prince Sapieha Palatin of Wilna and great General of Lithuania, was choſen Director of the Tribunal; M. Caminski was choſen Regiſter; and M. Podlecsky Treaſurer. The Perſons that compoſe this Tribunal, are in Number 19; of whom 2 have been deputed to pay their Duty to King Staniſlaus. They are to annull all Decrees made in the Name of King Auguſtus. M. Kniaziewicz, who was taken by the Swedes in the Dutchy of Slusk, is to be try'd for uſurping part of the Eſtate belonging to the Houſe of Sapieha; and M. Syatycki and Slizen, for killing the Maſter of the Horſe of the Dutchy of Lithuania. By Letters from Lublin we have an Account, that there was a general Inſurrection in the Palatinats of Cracow and Sendomir, in the Dutchy of Zator and Oſwiecim, and in the other neighbouring Territories, where the People ſeem'd determin'd by Force of Arms to expel the Troops of the Army of the Crown out of their Quarters, which the Nobility alledge they have taken contrary to the Laws and the Publick Liberty. 'Twas not known who was the Author of ſo ſudden, ſo unexpected, and ſo univerſal a Commotion. Thoſe Palatinats have declar'd, that they have been forc'd to have Recourſe to Arms for defending their Liberties and Eſtates; though they make uſe of that Remedy but too late, becauſe they are almoſt utterly Ruin'd. This is attributed to the Partiſans of King Staniſlaus, who (taking Occaſion from the Diſorders committed by the ſaid Troops, which live upon the Lands of the Nobility and Clergy without any Diſtinction, and with greater Licentiouſneſs than declar'd Enemies,) have excited the Nobility againſt the Generals of the Army, finding they perſiſt in refuſing to acknowledge that Prince. 'Tis reported even, that a Confederacy is forming in the Army againſt thoſe Generals. The ſaid Palatinats have ſent Deputies to the little Diet of the Palatinate of Lublin, to invite it to enter into their Sentiments, and to joyn its Arms to theirs. They have reſolv'd to hold a general Aſſembly the 4th of June, at Konzin on the Viſtula, to which the Nobility will be oblig'd to repair in Arms under the Penalties denounc'd by the military Laws: But they will firſt hold little Diets on the 22d of May. 'Tis believ'd their Example will be follow'd by other Palatinats. The Count de Moſtyn Palatin of Sendomir, has been oblig'd to write in the Name of the whole Palatinate to the Palatine of Belze great General of the Crown-Army, to re-mind him of the Duties and Obligations of his Office, which are to defend the Frontiers and to act againſt the Enemy, not to keep in the middle of the Kingdom to the Prejudice of the publick Liberty. He has alſo ſummon'd him to ſend Commiſſioners, who joyntly with the Commiſſioners of the Palatinat of Sendomir, may take Information of the Inſults and Diſorders committed by the Troops, with full power to judge and to decide. He has alſo demanded of him, from whence the Palatines ſhall receive the Satisfaction that ſhall be adjudged to them for Damages. In Concluſion, the Palatine of Sendomir has declar'd, that he will cauſe the Salt that comes down the Viſtula from the Pits of Bochnia to be ſtop'd, till Juſtice be done to the Nobility. The Palatinat of Lublin has conform'd intirely to theſe Reſolutions of the Palatinat of Sendomir, as being under the ſame Miſeries: And beſides, a Reſolution is paſs'd, importing, that when a Diet of Pacification ſhall be call'd, thoſe who are guilty of Violences and Diſorders ſhall be excluded the benefit of the Amneſty, the Hopes of which induc'd them to commit them. In the mean time the Troops of the Crown are marching towards Nisko, where where the Army is to draw together, giving new Vexation to the Peaſants, becauſe of the ſcarcity of Forrage.

From the Amſterdam Courant, &c, dated June 12.

Warſaw, May 29. The laſt Letters from the King of Sweden's Army are of the 19th Inſtant, when they ſtill continued encamp'd at Rodoskiewicz. The Palatine of Belz, great General of the Army of the Crown, having lately conducted his Lady to Skol on the Frontier of Hungary, where ſhe is to have a Conference with Prince Ragotski, is return'd to Jaroſlau, thence to repair to the Rendezvous of that Army appointed at Nisko. 'Tis reported he has agreed to a Ceſſation of Arms for 4 Months: During which, Conferences are to be held here, by the Waywod of Cracow on the Part of King Staniſlaus, and the Waywod of Maſuria on the Part of the ſaid great General; in Order to make an Accomodation between them; and that the Waywod of Lublin and M. de Bonac Miniſter of France, are to be preſent at thoſe Conferences as Mediators.

Paris, June 8. Private Letters from Madrid tell us, that the Court being inform'd the Merchants and others of Seville were ready to riſe in Arms againſt the preſent Government, as reſenting to the higheſt Degree that the French ſhould by a late Regulation be admitted to ſhare with the Spaniards in the Trade of the Weſt Indies, diſpatch'd M. de Menager to Seville; who aſſur'd the People, that 'tis now our King's Intention that the Spaniards ſhall enjoy their antient Right and Privilege of Trading ſolely to America, and that the French ſhall not in the leaſt intermeddle therein: But it ſeems this Declaration had little Effect upon them, for he was anſwer'd, that if his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had really ſuch Intention, 'tis not to be reconcil'd to his cauſing French Conſuls to reſide in all the Ports of the Weſt-Indies; and that they could not believe France would give up a Trade, which in the preſent Juncture of things is very beneficial to that Crown by enabling them in no ſmall Meaſure to carry on the War. The 20th of May King Philip declar'd in his privy Council, that it was his Pleaſure the Spaniards ſhould Swear Allegiance to the the Prince of Asturias his Son, as his Successor: Upon which the Duke de Veraguas took Occasion to say, that it was necessary his Majesty should first regulate and settle the Rank which the Deputies of some Provinces of the Kingdom claim before others, Arragon and Valencia pretending always to have the Precedency of the two Castiles: To this the King reply'd, that he would take Advice in this Matter of the whole Royal Council.

An Extract of a Letter from the Captain of the Scarborough Man of War; dated at Port-Royal in Jamaica, the 25th of March past.

'This Part affords no News; the Galloons 'are at Porto bello, and will not sail from thence 'so soon as expected; for by a Sloop that came 'from thence lately, they are not preparing, 'nor have not dispos'd of their Goods. There 'are abundance of this Island's Sloops on that 'Side, Trading with the Spaniards, and two Men 'Men of War with them; Mr. Wager is likewise 'over on that Coast; but I'm afraid will be oblig'd 'to return to Jamaica, before the Galloons do sail 'from Porto-bello. Our Squadron has been pretty 'Successful; not one Ship but has got a Prize or a 'Share, except Captain Trevor, who I hope will 'return with a good one to make amends; I had 'the good Fortune the first of this Month to take a 'French Flyboat, and the 5th following met ano-'ther Vessel which had been taken from the Dutch 'about two Months before: she was in Ballast, and 'the former about half laden with Course Sugar. 'I am this Day going out to Cruise with the 'Assistance and Dunkirk-Prize: We have a good 'prospect.

Plymouth, June 8. The 6th Instant came in a Dutch Caper, with a Prize bound from St. John de Luz for Canada, with Salt. Yesterday came in the Dover, Captain Matthews Commander, with two Prizes, viz. the Amazone of 18 Guns taken by the Antelope Captain Cavendish Commander, and the Parfaite of 24 Guns taken by the Dover; both of and from Havre de Grace, laden with Wine, Brandy, fine Linnen, Hats, Shooes, Provisions, &c. for Martineco. The Dover and Antelope were order'd by my Lord Dursely to convoy a Spanish Ship for Bilboa: Not far from Corunna they fell in with 4 large French Men of War, which took the Spanish Ship; and our 2 Men of War with much Difficulty got clear of them. This Day sail'd the Dover and a Dutch Caper to cruize.

Edinburgh, June 5. The Election of Dumfries terminated in a double Return for William Saterson, and William Johnstoun Esqs.
